

Medical Insurance

The College provides medical insurance for all enrolled students who hold the student identity card.

- Insurance Company : Liberty Insurance Pte Ltd
- Insurance Limit : Every insured student has an insurance limit of S$20,000

Summary of Terms

- Covers treatment at C / B2 / B1 wards at Singapore Government / Restructured Hospitals; student has to seek medical treatment within 24 hours
- Covers student who is within the borders of Singapore or is participating activities overseas organised by the College

Claiming Methods

- This is a refund insurance plan, in other words, the insured student has to pay for the medical fees by him/herself when he/she is hospitalised
- The student has to submit a claim form with the assistance of the School's Student Services Department
- The College will submit the claim on behalf of the student and upon confirmation from the medical insurance provider, will inform the student of the claim outcome

Notes

- Interpretation of this medical insurance policy is based on the original contract provided by the insurance company in English
- The student may wish to increase coverage and can purchase additional insurance coverage by themselves or with the assistance of the College
- The medical insurance is solely for students who are taking up our Student Pass Courses
